

Territory seniors in Territory places

NT Seniors Card photography competition

About the competition:

We are looking for a photograph to represent each region of the Territory.

One for each; Darwin, Darwin Rural, Palmerston, Katherine, Alice Springs, Nhulunbuy, Tennant Creek and Remote.

The photos must be of senior Territorians or visitors enjoying our beautiful natural environment or special venues, for example museums or nature parks. Photos can include other family members i.e.: grandchildren. Talent release forms must be provided for all persons in the photo, these are available at:

Photos that have been taken prior to the competition opening are eligible, i.e.: if you have some past photos that you feel are worth entering in the competition please do so.

The winning photo in each category will be used as the photo depicting each region in our printed discount directory.

Photos must be high resolution to allow for the quality design and printing process.

Each winner will receive a $100 gift card.

Winners will be judged by COTA NT staff and board.

Questions:

How much does it cost to enter?

The Territory seniors in Territory places photography competition photo competition is free to enter.

When does the competition open?

The competition is open now and will close at 5:00pm on 10 July 2020.

How do I send in my entries?

Entries should be emailed to seniorscard@cotant.org.au and be accompanied by the entry form available here (link to site).

What are the ideal dimensions for my image entry?

Photos should be submitted at the original size they were taken at (no need to downsize), and at least 1800px wide x 2500px high.

Which file format should I use?

Your image should be saved in JPEG or PNG format. JPEG images use the *.jpg or *.jpeg extension. PNG files use the *.png extension.

How many images can I enter?

You can enter as many images as you like, but please only enter your best work that meets the criteria of Territory seniors in Territory places.

When and where will the winners be announced?

The winners will be announced on our NT Seniors Card Facebook page and all winners will be individually contacted by us to arrange for prize delivery.