There are over 35 000 of you holding NT Seniors Card cards.

You can now use them at 450 businesses across the Territory, who are helping do their bit to reduce the cost of living for you.

We want to know how you're doing, so please take 10 minutes to fill out the 2022 Cost of Living Survey published by COTA NT. You only need your email address to enter. Click here to visit ntseniorsvoice.org.au/cost-of-living-survey-2022.

If you a business that offers a discount, but isn't officially in our program, let us know. Businesses signed up display a 'Seniors Card Welcome Here' sign.

When businesses sign up, it helps everyone identify them and helps business owners get found by more people. Win win!

If you have had great service from a NT business, let us know and we will give them a FREE enhanced listing - our way of saying thanks.

Cost of living survey

We revisit our Cost of Living Survey, first completed in 2020 in order to compare the situation two years on. Topics in this survey include residency in the Northern Territory, demographics, financial security, employment status, employment sector, annual income and highest expense impacting cost of living.

View and download survey here (you will need to post or email its return) or complete online here.

Royal Darwin Show Photography Competition

NT Seniors Card & COTA NT are sponsoring a class at the Darwin Show this year and the theme is "Seniors."

Competition Class 14 - Digital Open to all ages - Entries may be colour or monochrome. Theme Photographs* of Seniors in the NT doing an activity that depicts Territory Seniors' lifestyle.

Great prizes to win. Photos could be: seniors socialising over coffee, playing a sport, sailing, fishing, participating in family activities. It's open to your interpretation of the Territory lifestyle.
