MVR make it easier to get your $55 discount

Register your Seniors Card number with Motor Vehicle Registry (MVR) prior to paying your registration, this should be done once when you first receive your card.

There are two ways you can do this:

- 1 Take your Seniors Card with your driver's licence (or photo id) to an MVR office, or
- 2 Email a copy of both your Seniors Card and your driver's licence (or photo id) to MVR@nt.gov.au

Artwork donated to movie fundraiser

Over 250 people attended one of the Deckchair Cinema's last fundraisers of the year on Sunday 13 November, 'The Duke'. The Duke a quirky comedy is about a man who holds an artwork hostage to persuade the government to invest more in its elderly. The movie night helped to raise funds for not-for-profit, seniors' advocacy organisation, COTA NT.

Seniors Card donated the beautiful artwork, a painting from Yirrkala (seen right), to the raffle which was won by Claudio Rimondi. A big shout out to the other supporters who donated prizes, Saltwater@bundilla Cafe, Blue Taxis, Minister Lauren Moss and Northern Tamanu Oils.

If you missed the Deckchair's outdoor season, head to any one of these cinemas for relief from the heat. They all offer seniors discounts and are in our Discount Directory:

BCC Cinemas Casuarina
Event Cinemas Palmerston
Alice Springs Cinema
Katherine Cinema 3

Out and about

NT Seniors Card and COTA NT's Aged Care Navigator were out at Casuarina Village on the 18th of October speaking with local seniors about Seniors Card and aged care access.

We had the pleasure of the Hon Lauren Moss MLA Minister for Seniors dropping by to say hello.

Janet Brown Aged Care Navigator, Minister Lauren Moss MLA and Kim Farrar, Seniors Card Manager.
