The new Discount Directory out now - see where your savings are

The NT Seniors Card team is thrilled to be launching the new Business Discount Directory 2024-25 at the Royal Darwin Show (25-27 July).

holders discounts on their products and services.

See us at the show and pick up a copy! If you are one of the first 150 people to visit us, you may win a hidden prize in our free show bags. We will also have a competition to win 2 Deckchair Cinema double passes.

It features nearly 500 businesses and organisations offering NT Seniors Card

Available at COTA NT offices and over 70 locations across the Territory. Find out where here

News round up

We were busy this June with the NTSC Mini Golf event sponsored by our Business Partner, Palmerston Golf Club. We welcomed over 40 Seniors Card holders to the day.

If you were not able to attend, remember that with your Seniors Card, you can receive 5 years of social club membership at the golf club for free and get 10% off all purchases from the bar and bistro.

At the end of June was the Seniors Expo at Marrara in Darwin. It was a huge day and the team was kept busy with enquiries and updates. It was great to see so many Seniors Card members there.

We also have the new Seniors Card Business Discount Directory for 2024-25 ready for launch at the Royal Darwin Show. We cannot wait for it to hit the streets. It will be distributed to all MLA offices in the NT, libraries, councils and some information centres. Keep an eye out for it or pick up a copy (see where here).

Darwin Expo 2024

A PDF version of the printed directory will be available on the NT Seniors Card website from 1 August.

Water lilies to be won

We are thrilled to have another beautiful artwork by local artist, Jan Jarvis to raffle at the Royal Darwin Show.

The colours in this artwork are truly extraordinary (no filters have been applied to this photo). Tickets are on sale - 3 for $5 - NOW at COTA NT's Head Office (Spillett House, 65 Smith Street, Darwin) and at the Royal Darwin Show itself. The lucky winner will be drawn after the Show on 31 July 2024.

Free read out now

Dying to Know Day

Dying to Know Day (8 August) is a national campaign that supports Australians to improve death literacy and planning for end-of-life.

During Seniors Month, COTA NT Aged Care Navigators are hosting two Dying to Know workshops.

- Darwin - 6 August ($5 per person)
- Alice Springs - 8 August (free)

The Genealogical Society of the NT

The Genealogical Society of the Northern Territory has been helping Territorians for over 40 years.

They assist Territorians with finding and connecting with family, both past and present. They are dedicated to documenting and preserving the history of the NT.

They have amazing volunteers who can assist you in tracking information about your family. There is an extensive library that members can have access to. Learning your family history is the key to unlocking who you are. Want to know more? Give them a call 08 8981 7363.

We have a winner!

Congratulations to our Seniors Expo draw winner, Marie Thomas, who receives $100 to spend at Saltwater @ Bundilla.

Lorna McLaughlin presenting Marie's husband with the voucher.

Thank you to Saltwater @ Bundilla for the donation. This little cafe is next to the NT Museum and Gallery with a view of the ocean and large outdoor area - perfect for sunsets.

DonateLife Week is taking place from Sunday 28 July - Sunday 4 August 2024.

4 in 5 Australians say they support donation, but only approximately 1 in 3 (36%) are registered to be a donor on the Australian Organ Donor Register. (Only 16% of Territorians are on the organ donor register.)

You can register as an organ donor online today, www.donatelife.gov.au auegister-donor-today.

Tee-up for a great cause

NT Legacy Charity Golf Day, Saturday 24th August 2024 in Katherine.

All funds raised remain in the NT and more importantly, will remain locally. A great corporate bonding event, or an awesome morning out with your mates and family.

Find out more and register online here.
