SENIORS CARD

About Seniors Card

Northern Territory Seniors Card is part of an Australia wide program recognising the valuable contribution of seniors to their local community and to the Territory as a whole.

The Seniors Card program in the Northern Territory is managed by Council on the Ageing NT and is supported by the Northern Territory Government and by participating Northern Territory Businesses.

The Seniors Card is issued free and provides access to discounts on goods and services at participating businesses.

Seniors Card aims to provide benefits to both senior Territorians and to local businesses.

Seniors Card is for personal use and the discounts offered are not transferable to other people.

The Seniors Card is a lifetime card.

This application is for a new Seniors Card. If you require a replacement card or need to change your details with us please contact COTA NT at seniorscard@cotant.org.au or phone 1800 441 489.

By showing your Seniors Card you are also entitled to free travel on public buses in Darwin and Alice Springs.
